

CONTENTS

OVERVIEW	Ten Key HR Issues for Governors	5
CHAPTER 1	HR Governance - What Does it Mean? The responsibilities of governing bodies within HR. The development of employment law. Modernising people management in higher education.	6
CHAPTER 2	The HR Strategy Why an HEI should have an HR strategy. Aligning an HR strategy with the overall institutional mission, vision, values and strategy. HR strategies - funding council requirements. Future challenges.	10
CHAPTER 2	HR Governance - Relationships and Performance Working with the executive and the director of HR. Should there be an HR committee? What information should governors receive to measure HR performance? What can go wrong?	14
CHAPTER 4	The Governing Body and Performance Management Managing for performance. Performance management systems. Performance related pay. Learning, training and development. Succession planning.	20
CHAPTER 5	Ensuring Equality and Diversity The general and specific duties of public bodies. Disability - reasonable adjustments and positive discrimination. Retirement age. Equality impact assessments. The Human Rights Act, academic freedom and freedom of speech. Practical considerations.	25
CHAPTER 6	Appointing and Remunerating Senior Staff Appointing the head of institution. Supporting the head of institution. The remuneration committee. What governors should expect from the remuneration committee. Reviewing senior staff performance and performance related pay. Severance arrangements.	30
CHAPTER 7	What Governors Need to Know About Reward, Recognition and Collective Bargaining Information and consultation. National bodies, bargaining and joint working. Does your HEI operate equal pay arrangements? The framework agreement. Pensions. Alternatives to national collective pay bargaining.	36

CHAPTER 8	Discipline, Dismissal and Grievances Statutory dispute resolution procedures. Acas code of practice on discipline and grievance. Public interest disclosure (whistleblowing). The model statute. The role of independent governors in grievance and discipline.	41
CHAPTER 9	Occupational Health, Safety and Well-being The legal context. Responsibilities of the governing body for health and safety. Occupational health, employee well-being and stress.	45
ANNEX A:	Some Key References	48
ANNEX B:	Equality Legislation and Definitions	49
ANNEX C:	Suggested Answers to Governors' Dilemmas	53